

The Mason Community Arts Academy at George Mason University seeks candidates for the position of part-time Violin Jr. Instructor. Candidates must support the mission and educational program needs of the Academy. He or she will maintain an active studio of private students. The candidate must have experience as a private teacher who understands the needs and capabilities of the developing performer at all stages of artistic development. He or she is expected to create a nurturing, yet challenging teaching and performance environment that fosters successful learning. The candidate is expected to take an active role in recruiting and retaining students. In an effort to maintain visibility within the community, it is expected that the candidate will maintain an active performing profile, which includes participation in faculty performance series, both solo and collaborative at the Academy, and beyond. Candidates must be pursuing a Bachelors Degree in Violin Performance or Music Education. Candidate must also have completed string pedagogy coursework.

Please send resume, application, and two letters of reference to Academy@gmu.edu. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

Mason Community Arts Academy is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer committed to creating an institutional environment free from discrimination and harassment based on race, color, sex, marital status, religion, creed, national origin, disability, age, military or veteran status, sexual orientation, family relationship to an employee of Potomac Academy, and gender identity and expression.